

Existence in shape optimization

DAN TIBA

Institute of Mathematics
Romanian Academy
Bucharest
e-mail: dan.tiba@imar.ro

Abstract

We discuss recent existence results for unknown domain optimization problems governed by elliptic systems, including variational inequalities and stationary Navier-Stokes equations. The geometric assumption that we are using is the segment property, and we investigate several types of boundary conditions. In the case of mixed boundary conditions, we introduce a new compatibility hypothesis in the points where the conditions change.